Statement from the Alaska Chamber on the Inauguration of Donald Trump as President of the United States

The Alaska Chamber congratulates Donald J. Trump on his inauguration as the 47th President of the United States. The Chamber looks forward to working with the new administration to advance policies that support economic growth, create jobs, and strengthen Alaska's business community.

"We are optimistic that the Trump administration will prioritize policies that promote responsible development of our natural resources, support infrastructure investment, and reduce regulatory burdens that impact businesses in our state. I am hopeful of the great potential for growth these next four years hold," Alaska Chamber President and CEO Kati Capozzi said.

Alaska plays a vital role in America's economic landscape, contributing significant resources in energy, fisheries, tourism, and other industries.

The Chamber remains committed to advocating for the interests of Alaska's businesses at the federal level and fostering a strong partnership with national leaders to ensure a prosperous future for all Alaskans.

The Chamber wishes President Trump and his administration success in addressing the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead for our nation.
